

WARNING

The fraud case which disguises as an Embassy staff

July 26, 2021

Nepal Police arrested four Nepali as a fraud case on July 19, 2021. As per the information by the police, the four criminals deceived victims to pay the commission fee for the working visa in Japan. They made a fake Facebook account under the Japanese-like name, pretending as a staff of the Japanese Embassy and communicated with the victims suggesting to obtain working visa for Japan, requested them to pay the commission fee to issue visa for them.

Please be aware, the Japanese Embassy never contact individuals suggesting them to obtain visa in any cases.

Moreover, the Government of Japan has halted the acceptance of visa application for working visa as a border control measure on COVID-19. (The details of border control measures are available from the website below)
